Mr. David L. Eliades

The Senior Class, known for its intellectual superiority, has chosen as the outstanding candidate for the dedication of the 1972 Indianhead a man it feels is the most deserving of this oward. His outstanding talent of teaching in the most desirable way and his unquestionable ability as one of the finest department professors to stride through the campus of PSU has destined him to become the recipient of the dedication award presented by the Senior class. This dedication is presented with our greatest odmiration to Mr. Eliades. Please accept this with our congratulations.

Dedication

Homecoming 1971

Homecoming at Pembroke State University brought Bill Deal, The Prophets, Uncle Tubb and music, Mr. Homecoming and laughter, and Millie Ivey and beauty to a campus starved for life. Pembroke came alive in one of its few rare moments as all those present rejoiced in their new-found joy of seeing a team — organized, determined, and unyielding — achieve the ultimate in sportsmanship combined with a winning formula to reach a goal worthy of their ability. Oldies but goodies joined in with those of us still growing intellectually to celebrate the joyous event.

"I'll have them at your place by five."

Our cars have what it takes to be great cars.

Play your tuba,
Beat that drum;
Clang the cymbals,
Start to hum.

Hit a low note,
Hit a high.
Throw a——,
As the band goes by.

We come home to this?

Welcome to the gym-donce-ium.

When you're smiling, you bring out the sun,
When you're crying, your mascara will run,
So keep on smiling, 'cause when you're smiling,
Theta Koppa smiles with you.

A heart of love filled with joyous wonder and excitement flourishes amid the kindness and deep feelings shown by concerned students. To care and to love; let it spread.

Homecoming

Miss Millie Ivey

President Jones bestows upon Millie Ivey the crown worn by some of the most beautiful and talented girls to stride through the midst of a campus intent upon reality, but constantly gazing toward a dream. Millie has caused Pembroke State University to dream once more and brought new light in her beauty into an everincreasing darkness of our unawareness.

The Queen and her court proudly stand with their escorts. They are as follows, Vicki Perry, Steve Smith, Sally McCormock, John Morgan, Millie Ivey, Eddie West, Marie Apple, Chip White, and Vickie McDowell, and Bob Hudkins.

Albert Norwood is crowned Mr. Homecoming.

Mr. Homecoming

As the girls walk by, the boys are intent upon jumping up from their seats and running out to get a bottle of pepto-bismol.

Miss Vickie Canipe

Miss Indianhead

The night of January 26th brought beauty and luster to Pembroke State's gymnasium. The special occasion was the announcement of the 1972 Miss Indianhead, during half-time ceremonies at Pembroke's basketball game with St. Andrews College. Those competing for the title of Miss Indianhead were Dorinda Lusk, Debbie Feiner, Eleanor Rabano, Caroline Wilson, Jan Jacobs, and Vickie Canipe. The attractive Vickie Canipe received the 1972 title of Miss Indianhead and the honor of 1st Runner up was given to the lovely Debbie Feiner. The contestants received eligibility through nominations from members of the yearbook staff. Each contestant was photographed individually, then judged by professional photographer Bill Shaw of The Fayetteville Observer. Winners were chosen on the basis of their photogenic appearance.

The crowning of Miss Vickie Canipe by Kathy Burriss, editor of Indianhead.

Greek

Between the 12 pounds of bubble gum, 3 lost fillings and a chariot being pulled by two fraternity towers-of-strength, the Queen, Diane Johnson, was crowned from the six finalists. The preceding days had brought about a joyous jump in the mud, a contest to see who could ride his bicycle the slowest, a decisive battle at tug-of-war, and Tau Delta Rho Sorority walking away with the biggest trophy of Greek Week.

Now is the Time . . .

Out with the Class of '72 . . . In with the Class of '73 . . . With the ending comes the 1972 Indianhead which has endeavored to capture the academic year at P.S.U. We have tried to highlight its spirit and activities through Greek Week '71, Homecoming, Sports, Organizations, Greeks, and Classes. I have thoroughly enjoyed working on this yearbook and without the wonderful help of my staff, I would never have been able to complete it. At this time I would like to personally thank the sports editor, Steve Topp; the organization editor, Joy White; and the class editors, Cathy Summers, Barbara Malie, and Norma Cooke. The four I most want to thank are my assistant editor, Steve Burriss; our advisor, Mrs. Doris Johnson; our photographer, Mr. Elmer Hunt; and Mr. Ed Goldston, of the Hunter Publishing Co.

As I close this 1972 Indianhead, it is with the hope that in the future it will bring each of you many happy memories.
